*Something there is that's gold.
A shining beacon
Beckoning over a sea of centuries
And across the liquid black of a thousand nights.
A home for the weary wanderer.
A windblown pinnacle.*

*Man claws forever upward toward it.
Falling less short perhaps as the aeons pass
But perpetually failing to bridge completely the maddening gap.*

*The answer lies in hands.
Hands that love, that build, that soothe.
Hands that pass the sacred heritage of humanity from sire to son,
From generation to generation.
Hands that must be taught to reach always for that glittering orb.
Hands that have a hallowed destiny to shape.
A world to make.*

*We are as grains of sand on the shore
Where that heaving ocean beats.
And our achievements in themselves are nothing.
Our griefs nonsensical.
Our motions petty.
But add together the pitiful efforts of an age of scarred and wrinkled hands.*

*And you have it!
The magnificence of spirit which brings the gold that much nearer.
If the shine is dulled or obscured by mist.
We must not forget the certainty of its existence or its gilded promise.
We must not grow weak.
For in courage all nobility lies
And to the noble belongs the gold.*

Don Westfahl

But it is our firm belief that the main source of happiness in life is work. Whatever that work may be, we have found that the best gift life can give us is that we have something to set our hands to, something in which to be busy in which we may be productive.

W. Dedicate

Outside the home, the most immediate example is set by the adults who serve as our instructors and counselors. At East Bakersfield High School, we are fortunate to have many fine people to guide and show us what being an adult really means. One of these persons, Mr. John Harp, is particularly deserving of recognition and because of this, we who compile the Sierran wish to dedicate it to him.

Mr. Harp has a history of service as a teacher which suggests that many students have been given his fine example. Born in Colorado, this man earned his Bachelor's Degree from the Iowa State Teacher's College in 1936 and later received a Master's Degree from the University of Southern California. He taught, counseled and coached at Bakersfield High School and North High, and in 1956 he became Assistant Principal at E. B. Besides his school duties, Mr. Harp is active in Kiwanis, the California Association of Secondary School Administrators, the National Education Association, the California Teachers Association, and the Salvation Army board. It is obvious that our Assistant Principal has given much to his community and its youth. Besides attempting to capture between the pages of a book the memories of a year of life at E. B., we have also tried to present something of value for the years to come. Therefore, it is only fitting that we dedicate the 1963 Sierran to a man who has given much to be used later. Mr. John Harp is a fine teacher, a fine person, and an excellent example to all those who associate with him. If, because of this dedication, he receives a part of the recognition due to him, then its purpose will be more than fulfilled.

September Song

Tables and chairs crowd the senior park as people enjoy barbecued beef during the P. T. A. Barbecue.

For two months a high school lies silent and for that time the world rushes on around it. Like an island it stands alone and waits. Let there be something in that serene expectancy that, more than anything else, renews hope in the continuity of our way of life. As long as there are places where the chance to learn is put within the reach of the majority and as long as these places serve generation after generation, we have a future. For a few months a high school waits and watches for that slice of life fate has seen fit to bestow upon it. Undeniably that life is bitter-sweet, but as a prelude and preparation for the things to come, it is perfect.

Within those silent walls there is a pulse which throbs anew each September with the vivid, razor-sharp emotions which make man human. There is a kind of casual blessedness upon this pulse that we attempt to deny. Perhaps here is the fault. Forget the magnificence of living and what then? You only have the oppressive gray which comes from mixing tear stained black and laughter white.

The library is crowded on registration day as students prepare their courses with their counselors.

Frosh are the guests of all at the annual Howdy Hop.

Freshmen groan as Laura Hay relentlessly keeps them crawling before upper-classmen at the annual Girls' League Spaghetti Feed.

At the Student Body Card Assembly Maggie Magnus, Joe Sellers, and Jim Norsworthy prepare to jump off a cliff because they have no Student Body Card and are about to miss out on coming activities.

The first game of the season in Delano proved the triumphant skill of the Blades.

City Champs

Ben Olson skillfully receives a pass in the E. B.-South High game.

This year's almighty Blades and Daggers had a fabulous season. The Daggers stormed through a completely undefeated season while the Blades performed a spectacular fete defeating the Drillers with a score of 27-6. The Bladesmen and Daggers both clutched the city titles and S. Y. L. Championships.

Coaches Migs Apsit, Hollis Shannon and Robert Aston were the guiding hands of the Blades throughout their nearly perfect season; and Bert Rowe along with Ed Knapp claimed the same position for the undefeated Daggers.

Robert Bethea does a good job of carrying the ball against the Arvin Cubs.

Jim Lindley helps the Daggers in a dazzling win over North High.

Paul Adams is the victim of the overpowering faculty as Harry Wetzler looks on in amazement.
The final score was faculty 20 - seniors 6.

Student Productions

Several girls demonstrate the gracefulness of modern dance.

A school as big as E. B. has many talented students, and our outstanding student productions verify this. Advisers and instructors help in the final performances and their aid is really appreciated. Stage crew and other organizations assist in performances, also. They are all invaluable parts of the productions given in E. B.'s auditorium.

Just a few of the different performances included the Christmas Program, the Senior Class Play, Lincoln Day Play, IRC Talent Show, Coed Capades, modern dance exhibition and others.

A Cappella Choir excelled in their presentation of Christmas carols and other music during the annual Christmas assembly.

Coed Capades, a girls' League production, was again a big success.

Here you view a scene from the Student Body play, "The Hasty Heart."

"Under the I R Sea" were the E. Bites who furnished their talents for the annual talent show sponsored by Inter-Racial Club.

Yell and song leaders ride into the stadium on the victory bell that was heard 27 times after the glorious game.

The Blade Band proudly demonstrates its skill and loyalty by forming the triumphant E. B.

B. H. S. song leaders contribute their part to the annual breakfast rally the morning before the game.

Tension, agony and a final glorious victory highlighted B.H.S week of 1962. Beginning on Monday with the decorations and posters in the hall, students became aware of the fact that our mighty Blades would again face our cross-town rivals. After last year's unwarranted defeat, everyone was anxious to view the results of the pending game. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday slipped by with agony pulling at the heart strings of all worried EBites who could hardly stand the wait before the final battle. Friday morning was the real swelling of spirit and excitement for the oncoming gridiron clash. Girls' League sponsored their annual Breakfast Rally that morning where guest yell and songleaders from B.H.S. were graciously applauded even though we "knew" they were soon to lose a game. Somehow school went on as usual that day with the exception of trumpets sounding a victorious CHARGE at the end of each class hour. The 3:00 bell rang and roars of spirit emerged from within the halls of E.B.H.S. From school to home and then to Memorial Stadium E.B. Blade fans traveled. The game went smoothly almost like a dream. The Blades remained in front all the way to a spectacular victory with the score ending 27-6, the worst slicing the Blades have given the Drillers for quite some time.

Mickey Hopper tearfully expresses thanks for her crowning of Betty Blade.

A small bundle of joy as an energetic song-leader tearfully accepted the traditional long stemmed roses and bracelet respectfully engraved Betty Blade. Mickey Hopper, this year's elect for the honor, was not only a vivacious song leader with a sparkling personality, but a girl that all students and teachers thought a great deal of. She served her class as a loyal junior class yell leader as well as other evidences of leadership which proved her to be well deserving of the title . . . Betty Blade 1962-63.

Bobby Blade

A powerful football, basketball and baseball player who loyally helped the Blades to many team victories during the past two years is the recipient of the Bobby Blade crown this year. Besides his tremendous athletic ability, Terry Maddux is interested in agriculture, winning many honors at several fairs. His versatility, leadership, and popularity make Terry the wonderful person he is and show him well worthy of the title . . . Bobby Blade 1962-63.

Christmas Comes to E.B.

"Hand me the scotch tape quick!", declares Laurel Miller as she is stranded atop the ladder while decorating the halls for the Winter season.

The merry Christmas, with its generous boards,
Its fire-lit hearths, and gifts and blazing trees,
Its pleasant voices uttering gentle words,
Its genial mirth, attuned to sweet accords,
Its holiest memories!

The fairest season of the passing year—
The merry, merry Christmas time is here.

—George Arnold

Here, the regular rhythm of E. B.'s dances is slowed down as couples waltz to the music of a combo.

A beautiful white Christmas tree adorned one corner of Girls' Date, adding to the atmosphere of the dance.

Paula Hutson and Suzie Burnette pack some of the cans collected in the Christmas Can Caravan, an annual affair at E. B.

Beaming with the joy of being chosen queen and attendants, Nancy King and her court reigned over Winter Girls' Date.

Patti served as an officer in Kamona Ki Tri Hi Y her junior year and was on Legislative Council and Rally Committee this year. Patti's ambition of owning a baritone ukulele was fulfilled during the latter part of the summer, and now she claims her skill in playing it as one of her various occupations.

JOE SELLERS

King of Hearts

Joe Sellers, Senior Class President, was selected at this year's Boys' Date as King of Hearts. Joe has lettered in football, wrestling and swimming throughout his high school years and participated in the activities of several clubs. He was voted into Key Club his junior year, and also participated in Executive Council this year. Joe arrived at the dance, after placing second in the Wrestling League Meet, just in time to be crowned King of Hearts.

Basketball Queen

Traditionally, the various basketball teams nominate a princess to represent their squad in the running for Basketball Queen. This year, Margaret Campbell captured the crown along with a dozen long-stemmed red roses and an identification bracelet. Nominated by the Varsity Bladesmen and chosen by the entire student body, Margaret tearfully accepted the crown. Well liked by all, Margaret participated in many activities through her four years at E.B. and was an asset to each organization of which she was a member.

MARGARET CAMPBELL

Wrestling Queen

The Blade Wrestling Team decided this year that they should have a queen to reign in their behalf at the annual Winter Awards Banquet. Being the first year for such a queen, it was quite an honor for Denise Smith when she joyfully accepted the beautiful bouquet of long-stemmed roses and an identification bracelet. Denise, a faithful fan and follower of the E.B. matmen, attended all dual meets in town as well as the tournaments out of town.

Student Body President

Don Prewett

Don Prewett, this year's Student Body President, did a fine job in handling the gavel for the entire student government of 1962-63. Leading the student body of East High is not an easy job, but Don proved himself very capable. Besides devoting his time and effort to the management of student government affairs, Don also contributed his skills to the swim team all four of his high school years. Keeping busy with the arduous office of president, still did not keep Don from maintaining the friendly and pleasant personality for which he is noted. Whether conducting a meeting or casually talking with his friends, Don is always welcome in any group.

The Executive Council of E. B. is a very vital part of our student government. Each member of this law making body is a student body officer or the president or representative of his class. After spending a few weeks in August at a training program held at Camp Condor, several of the Executive Council members gained valuable experience in student government.

Mr. Ben Kellner, the adviser and director of this Executive Council, led the group of students very well. Beginning with their assembly for the incoming frosh, Executive Council continued its eventful year by sponsoring the Howdy Hop, again for the benefit of the freshmen, and passing activity petitions for the various clubs on campus.

Legislative Council

Student government at any school is an important job and E. B. is no exception. For the opinions and ideas of each individual at a large school to reach a person who can express them is nearly impossible. So the next best way to equally represent all the pupils at such a greatly populated institution is to have one person from each classroom tell the council their class' ideas and suggestions.

E. B. has this method of solving the representation problem and it has worked well for several years. The council is made up of representatives from each second period class. They bring ideas and suggestions to the council from the students and in turn carry these new laws and changes back to the classrooms.

The main activity of this year's Legislative Council was the electing of candidates for the annual Teenage City Government Day. Once again E. B. participated actively in this worth-while day of experience in city government. Adviser Mr. Brunson gave a helping hand whenever needed.

Representatives meet in the auditorium to initiate new legislation for E. B.

Inter-Club Council

Different clubs and organizations of E. B. would not have run as smoothly as they did this year without the aid of I.C.C. — Inter-Club Council.

Officers Jeff Gustafson, president, and Susie Burnett, secretary, led in carrying out the aims of I.C.C., which were to unite E. B.'s clubs, to serve the school and community, and to help all organizations to function properly.

Through the year this active club sponsored many events. Among those listed on their agenda were the running of concession stands at the South High football game, supervising the annual Christmas Can Caravan week and dance, and building a float for the Booster Club emphasizing the Big Splash project. Their yearly duty of checking and approving constitutions of various clubs was again attended to and once again they sponsored a Greek orphan. Ilioula Katsiou, this year's orphan, was very grateful for the aid given her.

Rally Club

Judie Anderson, rally commissioner, guided the ambitious hands of the rally committee to another successful year of promoting E. B.'s school spirit.

Each year this committee publicizes rallies for all school games as well as being in charge of the annual Betty and Bobby Blade Contest. Basketball Queen, Know Your Players and other contests are also under this committee's supervision. The 1962-63 B. H. S. exchange breakfast rally was another of their successful events and the spirit of the students was raised high for the spectacular E. B. - B. H. S. football game.

"What can we do at the next rally?", asks Judie Anderson, rally commissioner, as her consultees help her decide.

Administration

Without the guiding hands of the administration, students at E. B. would never complete a fully beneficial high school education. Every class in all the past years has been led by determined and extremely patient administrators who wanted, above all, to teach their pupils understanding and the ability to get along with fellow students, teachers and people in general. For all your help and understanding, administration, we say thanks!

Everyone associated with Mr. Mills finds him a pleasant person to be around and an ambitious example to all students.

Board of Trustees

MR. THERON McQUEN
District Superintendent

Five laymen and one superintendent vitally interested in the activities of all schools in the Kern County Union High School and Junior College District, of which East High is a part, comprise our Board of Trustees. Each of these men has an earnest ambition to make our school a better institution of learning and a more comfortable place in which to study. They are responsible for the adoption of policies for governing the district which includes finance, building, curriculum, employment and many others. Mr. McCuen, as District Superintendent for the past eighteen years, has served as secretary and professional advisor to the Board. It is through the endeavors and wise decisions of these people that allow us to have and maintain our excellent school system.

STANDING: Mr. Raney, Mr. W. C. Myers, Mr. Donald Ruggenberg. SITTING: Mr. Albert Gould,
Mr. M. Glenn Bultman.

P.T.A.

E. B.'s active P. T. A. again had a very successful year. The annual P. T. A. Barbecue and Last Blast were among their most outstanding events. Other activities under the P. T. A.'s supervision were the membership drive and many informative meetings for the parents of E. B. students.

Mrs. Wallis Matjasic, this year's president, did an excellent job of conducting the meetings. The support given to our Parent Teacher's Association by loyal EBite families was much appreciated and helped make our P. T. A. the outstanding organization it has always been.

Mrs. Wallis Matjasic presents the night's agenda at the first 1962-63 P. T. A. meeting.

The annual P. T. A. Barbecue was again a complete success.

E. B.'s new principal, Mr. E. C. Mills, gives an introductory address to a group of P. T. A. members.

Each March brings the anxious question of, who are the most outstanding seniors of the graduating class? The Senior Class Council determines thirty eligible students by looking into their past school record and nominating them on the basis of their academic and extra-curricular activities. These candidates are given a form to fill out, indicating all previous awards and honors, activities participated in both in school and out of school, and four teachers whom they would prefer to make out a recommendation sheet. This list is presented to the Scholarship Committee and twelve finalists are chosen. Finalists this year were Nancy King, Cheryl Kyle, Leslie Lerner, Laurel Miller, Vicki Morgan, and Cheryl Kyle.

From these finalists the faculty then takes over, choosing the final six to represent this year's graduating class. They choose these six not only by their scholastic standing but also by their citizenship and leadership qualities. The results of the final vote are kept secret until the end of the year when all senior students receive their Sierrans. It is our pleasure at this time to present the six outstanding seniors from the class of 1963 — may their invaluable qualities and leading characteristics guide them well on the roads of life.

MOHAMMED ARIFIN

Our foreign exchange student, Mohammed Arifin, came to us from Indonesia with bright eyes and having satisfied ambition of coming to America. His cheerful smile and pleasant personality are outstanding characteristics that promoted a fine boost to the foreign relations he brought to us.

What Does A Senior See?

What does a freshman see?

Endless halls filled with humanity.

Halls that are alien and unwelcoming.

Halls that are much too big.

Pride and insecurity are mingled within him. He tries not to let it show.

He, at once, has the comfort of insignificance and the discomfort of responsibility.

There are four years ahead.

What does a sophomore see?

Halls filled with humanity,

Halls that in a year have become familiar, even comfortable,

Halls that are only large after all.

The tang of adventure has long worn off and he is allowed the sophistication of being unimpressed.

He is not half as unimpressed with himself as he would have it seem.

There are three years ahead.

What does a junior see?

Halls that have been conquered.

Halls that are maddeningly crowded and inconvenient.

Halls that are actually small.

The glory of being a junior, an upper-classman, is not so overpowering after all. The role is much easier to play than he expected.

He does not feel this old, but of course he must be.

There are times when he has the faintly uncomfortable feeling of things going too fast, as if time was sifting faster between his fingers. The feeling is but faint.

There are two years ahead.

What does a senior see?

Halls that are absolutely inadequate.

Halls he has learned to master.

Halls that are dull, confining, and utterly without attraction.

Halls that are very faintly "alma materish."

They must be endured and defended at the same time.

The end is far too close not to be anticipated, but then again there is still that feeling of time going a bit too fast, only it's stronger,

There is one year to go.

The halls are emptied.

All the seniors have left.

Both are empty for a time.

The parting of the ways has left a void in both that must be filled.

That will inevitably be filled.

The graduates continue to be swallowed up by life, society, destiny.

The pieces slide into place with but few ragged edges.

There are four years gone,

East Bakersfield High's literary publication Literally Yours is the primary project of Quill and Scroll, E. B.'s chapter of the national literary society dedicated to preserving and perpetuating high standards in journalism in the secondary schools and the adult world. This publication, however, is not the only activity of this organization. The group is in charge of the B. H. S. Breakfast Rally during the basketball season, two money making sales, and, in general, taking care of those duties on campus which pertain to journalism.

Don Westfahl, President, and his able cabinet; Cheryl Kyle, Vice President; Kathy Arneson, Secretary-Treasurer; and Sandy Levinson, Literally Yours Editor; with the thirty-five active and associate members helped to make the year 1962-63 a banner year for the club.

Quill and Scroll "old guard" initiate new members into the organization.

Photography

E. B.-ites interested in photography make up a very active class that contributes an important part to the Sierran. Without these enthusiastic photographers the yearbook would be virtually pictureless.

The atmosphere of the photography room is constantly bustling as the students prepare to take pictures and fit them to the proper pages. Mr. Charles Flanagan advises these students in their picture making activities.

Gilbert Scott and David Slaughter both excelled in the football action area.

Student Store

The most popular area on the E. B. campus before school, at noon and after school is the student store. Hungry E. B.-ites gather here at all times of the day to talk and purchase merchandise such as food, school supplies, books, and gym equipment. Loyal E. B.-ites will also find Blade jewelry, scarlet and blue pom-poms, and decals at the truly all-purpose "Blade Inn."

Mr. Les Engleson is the guiding hand to the students who serve their patrons. These students who are the friend of all, develop skill in business as well as the experience of dealing with the public.

Clerks at the student store look over the financial situation with adviser Mr. Les Engleson. Looking on are: Mary Simpson, Chris Curtis, Linda Harden, Margaret Dumble, Cheryl Swan, Mr. Les Engleson.

The food window is the means by which the store gives faster, more efficient service to its customers.

Mr. Stutzman gives last minute instruction to students managing the lights.

The stage is slowly being put together.

Stage Crew

Any stage productions, assemblies, plays, noon movies, concerts, or special meetings for large organizations would not have been possible without the efficient work of this year's stage hands. Even though these energetic students, under the guidance of Mr. Stutzman, were rarely seen by those in the audience, no program given in the auditorium of East High could have been presented without their skillful preparation of the stage beforehand.

The competent work of this stage crew wasn't necessarily confined to the stage. Rallies on Permenter Field, dances in the cafeteria and other gatherings of the student body or large groups also called for their talents of setting up microphones and adjusting lights.

Under the guiding hand of Director Bob Campbell for the second year, the E. B. Blade Band had a very eventful and successful year. Drum Major Bob Jones led this group in excellent half-time and pre-game performances throughout the football season and for all parades.

This year the band had a very full calendar. Among its activities were the All Western Band Review in Long Beach where they were asked to give a special concert in the Veterans Hospital before marching in the annual parade.

Something new added to the agenda for this year was the hosting of the All Western Conference Band that was held here in Bakersfield at the Civic Auditorium. Honored band members from 5 western states gathered here to give its awaiting audience a very fine concert. One hundred and fifty members made up the final band, so those participating were privileged indeed.

Mr. Robert Manning again directed the E.B. Orchestra through an excellent year. Beginning with tryouts the first two weeks of school, this superb orchestra went on to play many concerts. Among those given for special occasions were the Christmas concert, performed in the auditorium; a half hour concert given to the P.T.A.; and a special program presented to the Junior High students that will attend E. B. next year. Something new added to their schedule for this year was an assembly consisting of only music for the appreciation of the students.

The Kern County Honor Orchestra; All California High School Symphony, in Santa Barbara; District Music Festival; and the Regional Contest Festival were the honor groups in which many E. B. orchestra students were privileged to participate.

As a result of the construction of the Civic Auditorium, Bakersfield was honored to host the All Conference Orchestra. Many E. B. students participated while all the instructors of the music department helped host the other five western states that also made their contributions to the excellent orchestra.

Besides participating in these outstanding activities outside of regular school, the E. B. Orchestra also gave its annual Spring Concert and the last event of the year—Baccalaureate.

Dressed for the big performance, the orchestra plays for one of the student assemblies.

Students are engrossed in their music as Director Robert Manning leads a morning rehearsal.

A Cappella

The eighty members of E. B.'s A Cappella Choir kept busy a good deal of the year living up to the aims of their organization. These aims are: to participate in school musical activities, to promote better school spirit, and to further the correct use of the voice in singing. The club carries out these aims by organizing several activities through the year that benefit themselves and the entire school. These include the E. B. Christmas program, the Pops Concert and the music awards banquet. Also, the group yearly participates in the Christmas Parade, the district music festival, the all-district chorus concert, the choir concert, and the baccalaureate exercises.

Choir

Diane Rose, the organization's President, with the help of the remaining officers, sees to it that the many and varied activities of the Choir are as successful as possible. From the appearance of the group this year, she and the rest of the members are to be congratulated on the fine job they are doing as representatives of E. B. before the public. However, credit for this fine club's success must also go to its director and adviser, Mr. Hildebrecht. Without the aid of this mentor the A Cappella Choir could not function. Truly, here is a fine example of the joint efforts of many hands.

Mr. Hildebrecht leads the A Cappella choir during half-time at the North High football game.

Girls' Glee

Do, re, mi . . . this could be heard ringing throughout the music rooms as these choruses; E.B.'s Men's Chorus, Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee practiced for their appearances. Mens' Chorus, consisting of all interested E. B. H. S. male students, sang at the annual Pops Concert held during the latter part of the year and also participated in the All District Kern County High School Choral Festival. Girls' Glee followed along the same path as Men's Chorus, but also offered their talents at the Christmas program held at E. B. Mixed Chorus, consisting of students just beginning to develop their vocal talents, had no performances during the year but gained a better understanding of music and the ability to read music by sight.

Anywhere there was music along with spirit this past year, there you would find the Pep Band. Under the leadership of Bob Burns, these fifteen band students eagerly participated in all rallies, football games, and basketball games. With Mr. Robert Campbell as adviser, this organization helped the song-leaders in their routines whenever needed, and they also helped motivate the spirit of all by arousing the mood to sing.

To become a part of this active band, the members were auditioned by Mr. Campbell at the beginning of the year and chosen according to their talent. Most of these students had been active in regular band and chose to put forth their skills in school spirit. The majority are lower classmen and juniors, so we will have a good, spirit-rousing Pep Band next year.

Time for the rally!

APRIL DAHL

LINDA WETZEL

Majorettes

These Blade twirlers, April Dahl and Linda Wetzel, led the E. B. band very well with their snappy steps and cheerful smiles. They brightened each home football game at half-time and all parades in which the Blade Band participated.

Both girls being freshmen this year, did a fine job with only their junior high school experiences behind them. They put out all of their skill, time, and effort without class credit, and were presented a very attractive majorette pin at the Music Awards banquet held during the latter part of the year.

Varsity Club

The active hands of the Varsity Club members again contributed their yearly spirit and services to E. B. All of those who belong to Varsity Club have either earned a varsity letter in one sport, or have been a B-Class letterman for three years.

Advisers Ed Knapp and Hollis Shannon guide the leading hand of Harry Wetzler as he upholds his worthy position as President. This group of athletes sponsor the boxing tournament each year, as well as providing a very interesting noon movie for the enjoyment of all students. The annual Huff and Puff football game is another of this club's numerous activities.

Key Club

Members of Key Club are voted in by teacher's vote and initiated by the previous members at a meeting near the end of the year. At this meeting the officers for the coming year are also installed. Being one of the most serviceable clubs at E.B., this year's Key Club had many activities. Printing and selling football programs, making concrete benches for the Senior Park, supervising a drive for the needy, helping with E. B.'s car check at the beginning of the year and helping to keep the cafeteria clean were services rendered by this club during the school year.

President Jeff Gustafson, along with advisers Mr. Jean Philipp and Mr. Leon Tedder lead the group in a very eventful year. Besides the activities at school the Key Clubbers ventured to Carmel for the regional convention that lasted a full weekend, spoke to different Kiwanis Clubs about their citizen quotient program, and aided the various Kiwanis groups in decorating for their Kiwanis Convention held at the Civic Auditorium.

Key Clubbers admire the trophy case they donated to the school.

Girls' League

JANNA WILEMON
President

Girls' League, headed by Janna Wilemon, participated actively during the school year. The organization put on the traditional Winter Girls' Date. The theme was Silver Fantasia, and was in honor of E. B.'s twenty-fifth anniversary. Before the school year began, members of Girls' League worked diligently addressing post cards and sending them to the incoming freshmen explaining the Big-Little Sister Party. Also, for the orientation of freshmen was the Spaghetti Feed. On November 9, B. H. S. Day, at 6:30 a.m. many yawning and sleepy figures could be seen filing into E. B.'s cafeteria for the Breakfast Rally, sponsored by Girls' League. Other activities included on the Girls' League agenda were two cake sales, Spring Girls' Date, a Mother-Daughter Tea honoring mothers, Girls' League Dessert honoring the graduating senior girls, and Coed Capades. One especially large project undertaken by Girls' League was the Central California Girls' League Convention which was held in the E. B. auditorium, cafeteria and bungalows. It was an all day event consisting of discussion groups and speakers. Other high schools in this area also participated making it a successful convention.

J. S. A.

Organized to promote a better understanding of our government and its fundamental operations is Junior-Senior Assemblymen. On the E.B. campus this club is a very popular one and all meetings are well attended.

Several of the activities under operation by J.S.A. this year were having special speakers, selling the fall and spring calendars to interested E.B.ites and also participating in out of school events. Advisers, Reed Rosenberg and Jack Cantrell, oversaw all activities and President, Alan Hall, led the group very well. Each meeting was enacted on a very official basis with knowledge of parliamentary procedure.

SHARON TALLMAN
President

Presenting the I. R. C. Talent Show, sponsoring the Valentine Dance, offering a scholarship, giving a steak bake and befriending foreign students not sponsored by A. F. S. are among the many activities of this organization. Because I. R. C. is one of the most popular clubs on campus, advisers Bill Vinson and Dick Scatena enjoy scheduling the program for its members.

Goals of this organization are to better the relationship between races and to keep harmony among all students at E. B. These aims were reached very effectively by officers Margaret Magnus, Suzanne Wilder, Vicki Squires, Susie Burnett, Kathy Marantos and President Sharon Tallman.

California Scholarship Federation

Under the able leadership of Carl Bryan, the California Scholarship Federation accomplished its primary aim with much success — to promote scholarship and to recognize academic achievement. This aim was carried out with a fall potluck and the Gold Seal Banquet to honor life members. As its money-making activity, the club was in charge of rooter ribbons for the football season and managed to come up with an original slogan every week. Carl was aided in his efforts by the following slate of officers: Roger Sprinkle, Vice-President; Laurel Miller, Treasurer; and Diana Carpenter, Secretary. The club's advisers, Mr. Lynch and Mrs. Aldrich, added the needed faculty assistance. The result of the work of these persons and all fifty of CFS's members proved another successful year for this statewide organization.

A.F.S.

On Campus, we tend to judge a club by its school activities, and in this category, American Foreign Students is an organization that needn't bow to anyone. Its purpose is to further friendship and understanding between the nations of the world at the student level, and to live up to this goal, the club has many and varied activities. Perhaps its primary job, sponsoring and financing a foreign student, is facilitated by A. F. S. week, in which an assembly and class fund-raising competition are held. After the arrival of the new student, the club arranges for discussions and talks in which the exchangee is featured. This year's slate of officers: Toni Templeton, President; Don Russell, Vice President; Margaret Knowlden, Secretary-Treasurer; and Shiela Moore, Publicity-Historian; did an excellent job in carrying out the many projects of E. B.'s American Foreign Students organization.

Future Farmers

Agriculture and the building of our future farmers is the important job of this organization. Without the knowledge accumulated from classes and the experience gained from being a member of this type of club our country's farmers would be in a poor state of affairs.

Farming in Kern County is a thriving occupation and these students are rapidly learning how to adapt themselves to the many vigorous chores necessary in becoming a successful farmer in this fruitful valley.

Numerous top honors were received at the Kern County and California State Fairs by members of this E. B. farmers group.

A. barbecue — as well as clean-up, decorating the halls at Christmas time, preparing excellent card stunts for each home football game and setting up tables and decorating for different banquets held in the E. B. cafeteria were among the many serviceable deeds done by the Service Clubbers this year. All forty members did their part in making the club a success. Officers Greg Abbot, Vice President, Cheryl Kyle, Secretary-Treasurer, and others also added a very important part to the organization.

Future Teachers

Promoting interest in the profession of teaching and improving student-teacher relations at E.B. are the goals of the Billie Davis Chapter of F.T.A. The club activities this year included sponsoring a children's party at Christmas and providing a Teacher's Service in which members of the club provided help to teachers in correcting tests and typing. Enjoying a duet practice, Diedra Rouse and Diedra Moncrieff look up for the camera.

Composed of students interested in playing the piano, as well as those that are already skilled at this talent, the piano club was a well developed club this year. Most of the members of this group acquired membership by being a student of Miss Lynn, who is the adviser of the organization.

Selling Mason's Mints and other types of candy was the main money making project of the club this year. Money raised went toward a scholarship to one of the outstanding pianists. Besides developing a good ear for music and the ability to play the piano well, this club also promotes friendliness and good citizenship.

The members of this group, besides learning the fundamental operation of rifles, also were taught the rules and safety precautions of handling weapons. Bob Boyer rejects a Rebel while Socorro Pena awaits a pass.

Reuben Elias blocks for Terry Maddux as he passes the ball toward our goal.

Featuring only six Varsity returnees, hosts of ex-Junior Varsity, B class members of previous championship teams, and a new coaching staff, Coach Marger "Migs" Apsit groomed his '62 grid squad to perfection and carried off two championship trophies. This year he also placed the greatest number of players on the all-city and league teams.

This power packed team boasted the outstanding back of the year, Terry Maddux, who also was recipient of the E. B. Harry Coffee's award as the outstanding football player for the second straight year.

The Blades ran up an impressive record of 8-1. This included seven victories in a row, and whipping the Bakersfield High Drillers 27-6, the worst beating ever sustained by the cross town team.

Eight seniors of the almost undefeated team were voted by the six city coaches to represent E. B. on the all-city team, Terry Maddux, Bob Boyer, Ray Bateman, Bob Martini, and Jon Wells captured spots on the offensive team while Joe Sellers, Charles Gillenwater, and Lee Hammett placed on the defensive squad for their outstanding work all season.

Receiving spots on the all-South Yosemite League first team were again Terry Maddux, Bob Boyer, Jon Wells, Bob Martini, and Ray Bateman. Socorro Pena placed on the second team for the sixth all-SYL member from East High.

All four of the juniors who earned a place on the varsity received monograms and will be back in action next year. Ben Olison, probably the fastest runner on the team and best break away runner since Bill Mackey, will be setting the pace in the backfield next season. Blocking up front will be Ben Sellers and Ron Warkentin in the line and John Young at one of the end positions.

Besides the one loss received by the Blades, their closest threat came against the stubborn South High Rebel crew. In '61, Coach Larry Lafond and company were riding high with a perfect record when they met the Blades. The Blades were up for the game and ended the Rebel streak with a 27-19 downing. This season South wanted revenge and almost got it, but were turned back when the powerful Eastern team went on to win 19-18. Russell Hins decided the contest with his extra point after the touchdown.

To set the final crown on this nearly perfect 1962 season, the Mount Vernon crew tallied up 204 points for the total session while the defensive unit held only 72 markers. This gave our Almighty Bladesmen an average game score of 23-8.

Socorro Pena comes through with a good blocking job for our successful runner, Terry Maddux.

Russell Hins tactfully runs a conversion for the Blades against the Rebels.

Mike Way (45) stabs a star as Terry Newman (17) blocks an opponent from tackling our man.

Coaches Bert Rowe and Ed Knapp beam over a Dagger victory.

Mike Mendiburu tries to overpower his opponent as he charges for a touchdown.

Rolling to their second straight unbeaten season and first perfect one with no ties, the Daggers stretched their winning streak to 19 games without a loss. The B class men won their second South Yosemite League and city tilt in a row. During the year the Dags accumulated 287 points to their opponents' 47, ending the year with a heart stopper over Taft, 27-20. Down 13-0 at halftime, Coach Bert Rowe and crew came stormily back to tally 27 points for their best second half performance and a hard-fought year.

Dirks

Ron Wolfe comes through with a powerful block as Tony Mirales carries the ball.

Dirks confer with coach Robert Harris about their last game of the season.

E. B.'s C class Dirks, under coach Robert Harris, ran up only one win but tied three for a season mark of 1-4-3. Coach Harris had only a handful of experienced men and no returning lettermen from the year before's unbeaten championship team but did turn out some fine players. Tailback Jesse Flores and wingback Ken Fogle turned in fine performances for the year, with Flores being the top scorer.

Finishing the season without a win, E. B.'s junior varsity put all they had into each game but the opposition was just a little too strong. Coach Leon Tedder had few experienced players to work with; however, team spirit was high.

Against the B. H. S. Roughnecks, top JV team in the league, the JV's caught a little fire and tallied their high point score in one game, 20. But the B. H. S. men, heavy favorites, pushed across 33 to floor the E. B. men.

Having the strength of only one returning letterman, Coach Ralph Krafve built up a team that had no experience at the start of the year, but finished up with experience gained through hard play.

Terry Maddux led the hard luck Blades as their captain and experience man. He placed as the top scorer on the team and won the outstanding player award.

Backing up Maddux was a threesome of juniors who will be back next year. Ben Olson, Ernie Dominguez, and Jack Brigham all were outstanding and gained important experience which will be of great value next year. Coach Krafve's crew wound up the season with a 13-8 log.

Daggers

E.B.'s Dagger basketball squad captured the South Yosemite League title in one of their most successful years. They finished the year with a fine 15-4 season record including a 9-1 league log. Their lone loss in league play came against B.H.S., who shaped a winning streak of nine games.

Center Bob Cowan paced the team with his point scoring and rebounding. Hawks on defense were Mike Pettis and Gus Ruiz while Dennis Lockhart and Lance Calloway did the majority of the play calling. Cowan acted as team captain with Pettis being the spirit leader. Cowan led in all fields of statistics by being leading scorer with more than 200 tallies and leading rebound man.

Wrestling

E.B.'s varsity wrestling squad put on one of the finest showings by any team ever assembled under East's grappling mentors. Five team trophies, four tournaments, and South Yosemite League title for the third straight year were some of the finer items won by the canvas crew.

Looking at the individual honors won by the grapplers, four undefeated bonebenders rate first. Curt Bradford, Jim Norsworthy and Dan Gamboa went unbeaten through the entire season with Jim Lindley losing only one dual match. Capturing first place honors in SYL were Quinnie Morgan, Al Schnee and Joe Sellers with Bob Martini and Ray Bateman placing second. The Blades continued their winning streak of consecutive dual matches by going unbeaten through non-league and league for the third year in a succession for 38 wins. They also won the Novice tourney, Cal Poly Invitational, S.Y.L. League championship, and the Valley championship.

E.B.'s junior varsity wrestlers compiled almost as outstanding a season. They were defeated only once through the course of the season and tied for first place for the second consecutive season. Coach Leon Tedder, varsity, and Coach Bob Aston, JV's, both felt the season was one of the most outstanding of any ever in the history of wrestling at E.B.

Boxing

For two weeks during the first semester of the school year noon hours were devoted to boxing. Each fourth and fifth period the Varsity Club sponsored these matches and also the final tournament. The winners in the first week of prelims went on to fight in the next week of semis, and those winners on to the Friday night finals. Finalists received gold and silver gloves for winner and runner-up, respectively, in the different weight divisions.

Lettermen's Banquet

At the conclusion of each football-cross country season there is a banquet in honor of the lettermen in each sport. This year's honors of letters and trophies went to the Varsity and Dagger squad members, while only letters were presented to the cross country team and other football squads. After the dinner, served by the Future Homemakers, this program also included special awards such as the Outstanding Football and Cross Country man, the Harry Coffee Award, and the Most Inspirational Players of both sports.

Trainers

Equipment for active sports was the main job of trainer George Taussig and student trainer Tom Anton. These two trainers gave first aid to all injuries that occurred on the playing field and also issued uniforms during the different seasons as the varied sports occurred.

Senior Blade stickmen discuss past seasons with Coach Carpenter.

With the ultimate goal of winning their third South Yosemite League Championship, the main trend of thought from the opening day of spring training, Coach Les Carpenter's varsity stickmen battled their way through a tough league schedule. Two returning mound regulars, their battery mate, and two returning outfielders bolstered their hopes of a number one finish.

Practice games saw the Blades capture three of four and added much needed experience for the tough uphill league trek. Starters Ron O'Farrell and Mike Horton led the mound staff backed up by ex-JV Adolph Rodriguez and Robin Hess, while able bodied Steve Dean did the work behind the plate. Ex-Razors pacing the infield were Kip Campbell, Doug Elliott and Terry Johnson with sophomore star Jerry Pasquini holding down the shortstop spot. Backing Terry Maddux and Dwayne Wilbanks in the outfield were former JVmen Jeff Gustafson, Rod McClintock, Charles Gillenwater and Max Rodriguez.

Constant hitting practice was the main item of work each week to sharpen the batting eye while shag sessions and pepper games helped keep the errors down. With a new system of meeting every SYL team four times during the season, the diamond men fought through the hot days of April and May for the beloved crown.

SECOND ROW: Ronnie Taylor, Monty Hughes, Terry Maddux.

THIRD ROW: Coach Bert Rowe, Dave Scatena, Joe Weldin, Richard Cervantes, Phil Peirucci, Larry Davis, Roger Campbell, John Young.

Paced by good playing at one time, then bad the next, and three lettermen, Coach Bert Rowe and his JV forces headed into league play in search of their third crown in three years. Richard Cervantes and Dave Scatena headed the infield with Phil Pierucci the lone outfield candidate with JV experience.

JV and Frosh

Three returning squad members and a host of promising freshman players aided in the drive for the league crown along with frosh star Harry Loving. With inexperience in playing baseball on the high school level their biggest problem, freshman coach Ralph Krafve sent his eager frosh crew through many arduous practice sessions trying to master the fundamental arts of the game in preparation for the league foes.

Swimming

Blade Swimming

The '63 swimming season approached Coach Hollis Shannon and company at a speedy rate with few pre-league meets on tap before the South Yosemite League rounds set in. Working from a crew of only five returning letter winners, the Blades faced an upstream battle all the way. Freestyle ace Bob Boyer; butterfly, Terry Newman; Don Prewett, Theron "Buzzy" Taber and Craig Uhl formed the nucleus for the splash team.

Moved up from B Class to compete as varsity men were Richard Bonelli, Jeff Hammett, Dwayne Smith, Joe Monford, Joe Sellers, and Roger Molhook to help in getting the Blades league contenders.

Blade tankmen toppled over every early season opponent and were high flying when they had to take second place in the E.B. Invitation meet to B.H.S. for the second straight year. Again the league scene saw E.B.-B.H.S. tussles as the main attraction.

Terry Newman opened early in the season by breaking his own 200 yard individual medley in a Delano meet. Boyer looked outstanding throughout the season while Taber, Uhl, Prewett, and Sellers also sparkled.

Depth was the biggest problem, but with the continuance of the season the Blades looked more and more like real competitors and stood out in all meets.

Diver, Bill Dawson, practices one of his complicated stunts.

Another sprint completed!

Blade tankmen start off on a vivacious workout.

Jim Clark

The time was good! Coach Shannon from the Varsity squad compliments on-looking Daggers.

Daggers go off the blocks on a warmup sprint.

Sparkling as one of the big B Class teams of the South Yosemite League, East High's Dagger splashers marched through a tough practice session and on into league in high hopes. The Dags are bolstered by four returning lettermen, one returning squad member and three Dirk lettermen.

Dagger returnees were Jim Crane, Harry Wetzler, Tim Boyd and Larry Tillery with Brian O'Neil the squad member, while Dirk lettermen swimming B were John Pair, Pug Jones and Mike Martin.

Dirks complete one of their practice sprints.

Only two returning lettermen and a lack of the needed experience, the Dirk mermen looked forward to another winning year following their pre-league warmup meets. With continual swimming and splashing, the lack of experienced Dirks gained the needed stuff and proved to be top competitors.

Richie Mortimer demonstrates a swan dive.

Bladettes

Pat Wilson, Bladette diver, shows an excellent back-dive from the 3-meter board.

Charging through pre-league competition without a loss, Mrs. Elsa Komonitsky's gal splashers enjoyed one of the most successful campaigns in their history. Top performers for the girls this season were Pat Phelan, Lynn Higby, Candy Art, Mary Kay Goertz, Anne Payne and Soundra King, with top divers in Carol Johnson and Pat Wilson.

Bladettes placed third in the E.B. Invitational and hoped for a successful league campaign and the league title.

Coach Komonitsky gives girls instructions for their practice.

A workout sprint begins! Bladettes really put forth a lot of effort to prepare for their meets.

 FOURTH ROW: Doug McGinty, Nathaniel Cooper, Benjamin Olson, Lee Davis, Socorro Pena, Rueben Elias, Payl Ybanez, Gary Kinsman.

Blade Cinderman

Pacing the '63 edition of Coach Chuck Wienmann's track squad were eight returning lettermen with strength in the sprint and hurdle events, with the field events being the main weakness. Blades compiled a fine season log and had many outstanding individual stars.

Sprinters Rueben Elias and Ben Olson, hurdlers Lee Davis and Gary Ingersoll, and middle distance man Socorro Pena headed the staff of cindermen in the track department. Broadjumper Nat Cooper, pole vaulter Candy Carrizales, and shotman Doug McGinty were the top performers on the field level. Cooper performed outstandingly throughout the year with his first meet jump coming only $1\frac{3}{4}$ inches short of the school mark.

One of the main concerns of the thincladers this season was in qualifying more individual entries in the league and valley tournaments, along with working toward team honors.

Coach Weinmann goes over a day's schedule while team prepares to practice.

B Class strength for the track season was not up to last season's valley champs, but many fine efforts were given and an outstanding record was compiled for the season. Only three Dagger lettermen bolstered the strength of the crew but six Dirk monogramists backed up the B experiencers. Sprinters and middle distance men, Bob and Frank Hensley, along with hurdler Don McCoy headed the list of returnees with Ernie Hinzo, Mike Blair, Ernie Holmes, Ray Carte, Mike Mendiburu and Milt Wolfe.

Daggers and Dirks

This year, according to Coach Chuck Weinmann, most of the team's strength was in the C Class division. The two Hensley's are both C and were moved down when not needed on Dags to build the strength of the Dirks. James Cunningham was the outstanding C Class sprinter, winning the 330, 100 and 180 yard dashes and was one of the four men on the relay team.

FIRST ROW: Ken Fogle, Greg Smith, Lonnie Gwyn, John Slayton, Rick Doolittle, Richard Lujan, Jon Stout, Ernie Sumlin, Steve Urner. SECOND ROW: Don Crouse, Doug Gates, Steve Lewis, Randy Robinson, Savas Hernandez, Tim O'Hara, Ron Wolfe, Charles Thomas, Eddie Cadena. THIRD ROW: Greg Art, Gary Dahlen, Bill Wright, Bob Wren, Mike McFarland, Tommy Griffith, Bob Ryan, Joel Kolatch, Barney Cadena. FOURTH ROW: James Cunningham, Tony Mireles, Albert Valdez, Bill Espinoza, Bobby Hinzo, Ron Jenkins, Roberto Lopez, Augustine Munoz, Don Jamison, John Peet.

Track coaches, Chuck Weinmann, Jack Cantrell, and Ivan Pfeffer talk over the times in a dual meet.

Nat Cooper runs for one of his outstanding broad jumps.

Cross Country boys begin their daily work-out.

Five returning lettermen were among 66 harriers who led East High's cross country team to second place S. Y. L. and seventh place in Valley competition. Among inspirational seniors pacing E. B. were Ernie Hinzo, Carlos Ozuna, Manuel Granillo, Bill Walker and Joe Vigil. Joe Fonseca captured first place in the Valley freshman-sophomore division, leading that team to second place, highest in E. B.'s history.

Expecting teams with great potential in the next two years is coach Chuck Weinmann, who cited desire and feeling for competition as key factors in the success of the 1962 team.

Coach Reed Rosenburg and five able bodied returning tennis lettermen marched into and through another racket session in hopes of building a strong South Yosemite League contending team. Veterans Jon Wells, Nash Brown, Allen Snow, James Fisher, and Tom Matthews led the racketmen with Greg Smith and Richard Makoff two other stalwart tennismen in the line-up. SYL meet honors were out of reach for the Blades, but many upset matches spiced the season.

Girls' Tennis

Shirley Wold and Judy Anderson congratulate each other on a good match.

Connie Bohns, top senior on the tennis ladder, administers a serve.

Needing more depth but having a winning desire, East High's girls' net crew began South Yosemite League action following a very fine pre-league schedule. Returnees Shelley Johnson, Judy Hogan, and Shirley Wold paced the female netters through the '63 campaign. Miss Sue Kinney, newly made net coach, and squad were also bolstered by Connie Bohn, Judy Anderson, and Helen Bell in the doubles events.

Members of the girls' tennis team relax a little bit with their new Coach, Miss Sue Kinney, before a match.

On The Links

FIRST ROW: Lonnie Baldwin, Bob Shipman, John McFarland, Tom Killebrew, Marion Greenlee, David Mettler.
SECOND ROW: Migs Apsit, Rick Vogel, Carl Bryan, Wayne Winter, Greg Dunn, John Hutchinson, Craig Collins.

Experience, five returnees and optimism headed Coach Marger "Migs" Apsit through one of their most successful and winning seasons of the year. Sparking each match were low averages and sub-par scores which defeated many opponents through the year. Seniors Carl Bryan and Wayne Winter and juniors Greg Dunn, Dave Mettler, and Lonnie Baldwin formed the veteran unit. A new green Volkswagen truck was incorporated over the year for the weekly trips to the greens.

Off to another day of practice!

Below: Shippman pulls through a few practice swings.

Greg Dunn is watched by Coach Migs Apsit and two other team members while he demonstrated a fairway shot.
